

HPRC Collaboration Information Form

Information provided by HPRC collaborators from academic institutions, industry partners and non-profit organizations. Please complete this form and provide a one-page description of research activities and resources and an updated CV. Only complete applications will be accepted. Please return to the HPRC Coordination Center at hprcadmin@gowustl.onmicrosoft.com

- Organization of Applicant:
- Primary contact person and email address
 - Primary Contact Name:
 - Primary Contact Email:
- Will the collaborator claim a formal affiliation with HPRC?
 - Examples include announcements, websites, press releases, etc.
- Does the collaborator expect any other form of acknowledgment? If so, please describe. Examples include authorship in publications>
 - Description:
- Are you contributing, developing, or testing technology with HPRC?
 - If so , please provide a description.
 - Who will retain copyrights and IP for the resulting technology?
 - What if any license will be associated with using the resulting technology?
 - Are there any restrictions on the use of this license?
 - Please provide the license information.
- Are you able to provide data to the HPRC?
 - If so, please attach a description.
- Will the data be made publicly available?
- Do you have IT resources in place to share the data?
- Are you providing time, effort or expertise?
 - If so please attach a description including the names and roles of the collaborators and their percent effort.
- Can the discussions and results be shared and made available to the wider consortium?
- Please list specific HPRC investigators you will be working with.

- Please note confirmation with the HPRC investigators that the terms and conditions associated with this work are consistent with the notice of award terms and conditions.
- Are any funds from the HPRC grants allocated to this work?
 - If so, please include the amount of funding.
- Will a Cooperative Research and Development Agreement likely exist between the HPRC investigators and the collaborators?
 - If so, please provide the parties involved with or likely to be involved with this agreement.
- Signatures
 - Sign and date below.